PRIORITY STATEMENT:

Madison Academy is known for its family-like culture, technology-rich academic climate, and resolute commitment to local and global service. Our faculty and staff are dedicated to offering an education that is challenging in its content, relevant in its focus, and spiritually-rich in its purpose. This is an intentional effort to help every student achieve his/her greatest potential.

In order to fulfill our mission, the school board, faculty, and staff seek continuous school improvement based on reliable research, sound principles of child development, and proven teaching techniques that increase student learning.

DATA ANALYSIS:

Madison Academy is committed to regular ongoing evaluation to ensure that it is achieving its mission. We utilize a variety of valuable data collection tools to assess student achievement, perception, performance, and financial stability.
